THE PEOPLE'S UNIVERSITY IS THE CHAUTAUQUA

The Redpath Chautauqua in Jasper June 24 & closes June 29.

FRANK KRYL AND HIS BAND COMING HERE CHAUTAUQUA WEEK

FRANK KRYL and his band will give two concerts on Band Day Chautauqua week, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. Mr. Kryl, besides being director of this band, is also soloist on the French horn. He was educated in music in the Musical Conservatory of Prague. He has been in this country some twenty-five years, during which time he has played in all the leading cities of America. For some time Mr. Kryl was with the well known Innes Band. Later he played at the Chicago World's Fair and at every great exposition since, including the recent one in San Francisco. He has played the French horn in the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, of which Frederick Stock is director, for years; also with Dr. Kunwald of the well known Cincinnati Orchestra. Frank Kryl is a brother of Bohumir Kryl, the widely known band leader and cornetist and, like him, has made music his life work. When a mere boy he made his first violin from a cigar box.

In the Chautauqua program of this season Mr. Kryl plans to have some of the finest chimes ever carried by a band. There will also probably be a French horn quartet. Mr. Kryl was once himself a member of a French horn quartet which played before President Palma of Cuba. Mr. Kryl will also play solos upon the French horn, accompanied by the band. Among other soloists in this band this season will be James Hurt, known as one of the best xylophone players in this country.

Chautauqua Season Tickets.

In arranging to inaugurate this Chautauqua this year, the local committee bought 600 $2.50 season tickets which will be sold while they last by then for $2.00 each.

When these tickets are exhausted, no season tickets thereafter can be had for less than $2.50.

For the single admissions to the respective entertainments, see the official program.

Season tickets are non-transferable except within the owners family. The name of some member of the family must be written in ink upon every season ticket. This is made primarily as a protection to the owner in case the ticket should be lost.

Children's tickets admit children aged six to fourteen years inclusive. All children between these ages must have tickets.

SUPERSTITIONS DO NOT DISTURB TOM ROONEY

Would you feel creepy if you were Tom Rooney and was to drive the car built for and partially by the late Bob Burman? If you are the least inclined to be superstitious, you'd never enter the new Premier special racing car in the Sixth Annual International Sweepstakes race on the Indianapolis Speedway, May 30.

But Tom Rooney is not given to spooky emotions that disturb mental equilibrium and is glad of this, his second chance of his racing career to play the star role of driver. His first opportunity he turned into victory and a bag of gold to the amount of ten thousand perfectly good made in U. S. A. dollars. This was late last fall on the New York speedway when Tom came in second, averaging better than 100 miles per hour.

PROHIBITION IN RUSSIA.

The Czar has made a new, new law and signed it with his hand, And until the war is over there's no vodka in the land; And the moujik, oh the moujik, for once he isn't slack. He is fighting like a wildcat to get his vodka back.

You may talk about an open port, but every Russian knows That he'd sooner open vodka than all the port that flows; He rushes headlong at the foe, though the odds are ten to one, For he can't have any vodka till the civil war is done. —J. S., Jr., in Coraqui Widow.

A Great Change.

Several years ago Lord Clonmel brought to this country a string of race horses, and at the close of the season Phil Dwyer gave a banquet in his honor. Sheriff Tom Dunn of New York was called upon for a speech.

"Faith and this is the wonderful country," said Dunn. "I was a poor Irish lad, and me dear old mother, God rest her soul, hardly had pennies enough to bring me over. And here I am tonight sitting cheek by jowl with Lord Clonmel himself! Why, me friends, back in the old Tipperary days I couldn't get near enough to his lordship to hit him with a shotgun!"—Everybody's.

Good News For the Editor.

Who sings my muse takes flight I am launched; I cannot write.

Such was the refrain of the budding poet's latest production, and when it reached the hands of the weary editor, who had been bombarded by bushels of unavailable outpourings from the same source, he promptly sent it back with the following terse and businesslike endorsement.

"Glad to hear it! Keep Kitty right on the job! Any time she strikes for higher wages let me know, and I will make up the difference myself rather than have her stop."—New York Times.
